

Cultural Teaching Institute

October 9-11, 2008 ~ Statewide Inservice Day

Little Creek Resort, Hotel & Casino
91 West State Route 108
Shelton, WA

Guest Speakers

- Dorothy Cordova: Co-Founder of Filipino American Nat'l Hist. Society
- Claudia Kauffman: Senator (D) 47th Legislative district
- Dr. Minh-Anh Hodge: Director of Elementary Ed, Tacoma School District, shares strategies for working with limited-English-proficient (LEP) parents.
- Keith Egawa: Native American Author, "Mad Child Running"
- Dr. Tony Ogilvie: Dean Seattle Central Community College
- Tracy Rector: Director, Co-Founder Native Lens/Filmmaker
- Caroline Tamayo: Immigrants/Refugees/Girl's Groups
- Chenoa Egawa: Lummi Artist, Northwest Indian News, Works with MESA Program in Seattle to develop curriculum and workshops for Native youth.
- Alex Turrle: Navajo & Southern Cheyenne. Shares songs, drumming & stories throughout N. Kitsap Schools..

Agenda

Thursday Night	Hors d'oeuvre Reception Keynote
Friday All Day	Buffet Breakfast Six Presentations Culture Room (noon—5pm)
Saturday	Buffet Breakfast Guest Speakers Culture Room (10 am—2 pm)

HOTEL

Call Little Creek at
1-800-667-7711 to reserve a room.
Indicate that you are with the "Cultural Teaching Institute" for the group rate of $68.00 for Thursday night, and $89.00 for Friday night.

Event Registration Cost: $199.00

Field Trip to Squaxin Island Museum

Up to 15 clock hours provided.

For contact information go to our webpage at: www.dpbconsultants.com

Cultural Teaching Institute is presented by Petersen & Bill Consultants LLC